

COUNCIL 2017

PRESIDENT

Amy Sarjeant
CCDC
sarjeant@ccdc.cam.ac.uk

After much discussion, both among the members of ACA Council and with leaders of other scientific societies, and after a careful consideration of its mission, principles and goals, the ACA Council has voted to enthusiastically endorse the March for Science. Supporting the March for Science is a terrific opportunity for the ACA to emphasize the important role of science in society.

VICE PRESIDENT

Lisa Keefe

According to the March for Science mission statement (see <https://www.marchforscience.com>):

PAST PRESIDENT

Tom Terwilliger
Los Alamos National Lab
terwilliger@lanl.gov

The March for Science champions robustly funded and publicly communicated science as a pillar of human freedom and prosperity. We unite as a diverse, nonpartisan group to call for science that upholds the common good and for political leaders and policy makers to enact evidence based policies in the public interest.

SECRETARY

Diana R. Tomchick
Southwestern Univ
diana.tomchick@utsouthwestern.edu

The ACA remains a non-partisan organization supporting the stated principles of the March – most specifically that science serves the common good and evidence-based policy and regulations are in the public interest.

TREASURER

Sue Byram
Bruker AXS
sue.byram@bruker.com

We hope that you and your friends and colleagues will take part in the March for Science, either in Washington DC or in a local March nearer to your homes.
